Press release no. 1 - February 15, 2007

Bitfilm Starts its 8th International Film Competition

- Submission Deadline for Digital Films: June 15
- Worldwide Internet Voting from August to October 2007
- Live Events in Hamburg and Barcelona

The 8th International Bitfilm Festival for Digital Film will take place on the Internet, in Hamburg (Germany) and in Barcelona (Catalonia). All selected films will be shown online. Netsurfers are encouraged to recommend them to each other, generating virus effects. The global Internet community will thus decide on the Bitfilm Awards in a „viral voting“ process. The films with the highest viral potential are going to take the awards in each of the six categories:

T-COM 3D SPACE AWARD – computer-generated 3D animations

FX MIX AWARD – digitally composed hybrids which mix various techniques

MTV FLASH AWARD – animations made with Flash

MACHINIMA AWARD – films shot live in computer games

MICROMOVIE AWARD – short clips designed for mobile devices

GRAND PRIX TV DIGITAL – 3D or VFX-driven feature films

Films may be submitted until June 15, 2007 at www.bitfilm.com/festival. The prize money totals 10 000 Euro.

The Internet festival will be opened by a three day live event in Hamburg from August 9 to 11, 2007. It will include open air screenings of the selected films and a conference on digital cinema and mobile multimedia. The nominated films will be presented at the Bitfilm Festival Barcelona on September 19 to 20. The Bitfilm award show will take place on October 15, 2007 in Hamburg.
